AT THE AUDITORIUM.

Vaudeville and Motion Pictures.

The Parisian Girls, a bevy of dainty and daring demoiselles, with an act that showed their attractions to appreciative audiences, was the headliner on Monday at the Auditorium for the opening of the week. They had tuneful voices, graceful dances, shapely figures and pleasing countenances, and their work, individual and ensemble, was supplemented splendidly by twe favorites in Norwich, Tom Carroll and Happy McNally, with a line of funny stuff that kept their hearers in good humor all the time. Shattered Memories was the feature film and this tale of war times was balanced by the complete of the Friend the Millman. Vaudeville and Motion Pictures.

Census Bureau Estimate Gives Us Gain of 761 in Five Years to July 1st-Willimantic Increases From 11,230 to 12, 438-Tolland and Windham the Only Counties to Lose in Population.

According to estimates prepared by the government census bureau, Norwich can show a population of 21,128 in April 1210, to 18,484 at the beginning of the present month, which is a gain of 761 in the last five years, as the figure in 1918 was 29,367.

The increase in Connecticut as a whole for the same period is astimated at 198,827, the present population of the state being 1,232,532, as against the 1,174,766 reported in 1910. Hartford county remains the most populous in the state, showing an increase mine the population at 279,559. New Haven and Fairfield counties come next and all of the counties in the state show an increase with the exception of Tolland and Windham.

Hartford is credited with a gain of about 19,080 on figures of 108,969 for the present and 98,915 five years ago.

Other larger cities in the state have made appreciable strides since 1910. Bridgeport has forced ahead from 102,054 to 118,434, while the number of inhabitants in New Haven has increase from 183,096 to 147,095.

STARTED THIS TROUBLE.

Arthur Lyons, 19 years old, was arrested by the police Monday evening and is held for the city court this morning on the charge of breaking and entering a freight car on the New Haven road's tracks behind the transportation office on Shetucket street on Friday evening last. Agent C. J. Isblister complained to Chief Linton on Monday and gave the information that led to the arrest of the young man on the waterfront about 7.30 in the evening by Officer Hears Wester.

summens about midnight to be on hand this morning.

And the circle of those who had come in contact with the stolen sin still kept on widening. A couple more citizens, one of Norwich and the other of Chicago, were added to Captain Twomey's roster at police station. Edward Handrihan, 35, of this city, was routed out at Carbone's boarding house early this morning by Sergeant Matthews and Officer Daniel O'Neil and charged with participating in a beverage unlawfully obtained. So was Arthur A. Budden, 19 years old, from the western city, who said he was a mate of Lyons along with the carnival circus and got disgusted with the show business at Willimantic and dropped out there. Last Thursday he got a job as deckhand on the Block Island and Officer Fenton found him on the steamer this morning. There are others teo, who helped dispose of the gin, and possibly before city court time the little group, once convivial, now somewhat downcast will be swelled by several other imbibers of Old Tom.

All of which foregoing would indicate, figuratively speaking, that murder will out and the way of the transgressor is hard.

AT DAVIS THEATER.

Vaudeville and Photoplays.

The Earl and the Giris, two clever comedians in contrasting lines, and eige preity girls, made up the Keith act that was the winning vaudeville number on the bill at the Davis theater on Monday. Songs that were sprightly and melodious, cotumes and stage settings that made effective pictures, and the anappy line of talk by the comedians were the features of the act. The big picture on the screen was A Man and His Mate, a four-resident of the acting, with Henry Woodruff and Gladys Brockwell as here and store at Flainfield during the line in the protoplays also included the Mutual War Weekly and a Keyston ecomedy with Mabel Normand and Fatty.

But he quit the show here and since that time he had been hausing around the city, unable to find a steady job. He worked for a short time in a sales stable on Asylum and desire for work with a job in keeping. So it came about that on Friday evening he came across the care near the freight house and about $3.30 colock attempted to enter them. He broke the seal on one car, but was unable to force the door open. Another car, however, he was able to enter after breaking the seal, and from the unable to force the door open. Another car, however, he was able to enter after breaking the seal, and from the best known men in the state. He took away a case containing a dozen quart bottles of Old Tom gin, destined, according to the consignment, for the Waureran house, and a couple of cans of cookies. One of these cane was picked up later on the track beneath the car.

The police had had the young man under surveillance for some time and upon questioning at golice headquarters, but he had carried out the burgiary unaided, but the disposition of the gin involved others, and among those whom the spreading web of circumstance enveloped was Fred Dunbar, 52, of this city. day School to Atlantic Beach.

The Sunday school of St. James' church, Poquetanuck, held its annual picnic at Atlantic beach, Saturday, going there in two open cars, which left the vilinge at 8.55 a. m. and returned at 8.25. About 150 took the trip. During the afternoon all the children were treated to a ride on the merry-goround and to ice cream. A feature of the afternoon was the meces, in which old and young took part. The race for girls was won by Helen Willett and the boys' race by Harold Mansfield. The women's race was won by Mrs. Irvin Church, and the men's race by William Mitchell, Mrs. Charles Geer won the Guild race and the relay race wag won by Robert Thompson and Mrs. Alanson Fuller.
